

Labor Day Weekend 2021

Saturday, September 4 thru
Monday, September 6

Contra, ECD, Balfolk, Waltz and more!

FootFall will take place over Labor Day weekend at beautiful Camp Louise in Cascade, Maryland (near the Pennsylvania/Maryland border). FootFall begins on Saturday, September 4 and runs through Monday, September 6, 2021. Yes, you read that right. We hate bumper-to-bumper, emission-exuding DC-area Friday night holiday traffic, so FootFall check-in is Saturday morning at 10 am. Pack the car Friday night, go to bed early, and then arrive on Saturday morning, in the daylight.*

Bands this year are Hot Coffee Breakdown (Tom Cunningham, Kate Sanders, Luis de Leon), a trio with fabulous percussion; Are We There Yet (Susan Brandt, Tom Wright, Tina Chancey, Marc Glickman), wonderful DC-area contra and ECD musicians; and Box & String (Bill Quern and Sarah Gowan), who play guitar, mandolin, concertina, melodeon, 4- and 5-string banjo, fiddle, harmonica, and jaw harp. And foot percussion.

Contra callers are Gaye Fifer and Luke Donforth. English Country Dance callers are Melissa Running and Gaye (who will also teach a Dutch Crossing session). Balfolk will be taught by Lynn Baumeister. Sound by the always-amazing Jamie Platt, The Sound Guy.

FootFall shares space and meals with World Village Music and Dance Camp. All attendees at either event may attend any workshop. World Village features Greek and Balkan dance (and will host the balfolk sessions); Georgian, Bulgarian, and Ukranian singing; and Bulgarian and Pontic lyra instrument workshops. Workshop times will be coordinated to facilitate crossover. Again this year the Sunday night dance will feature all of the dance and music genres, with everyone from both camps participating.

All attendees (staff, musicians, callers and dancers) must be fully vaccinated and provide proof of vaccination (which we will delete on September 27). No exceptions. Masks are not required, although we will follow CDC and Maryland guidelines, which may change.
